A Judge's Viewpoint

At selected times on Friday through Sunday, hear how the experts would judge each dressage performance. Attend "A Judge's Viewpoint," where dressage judges offer a running commentary on each ride. This is a great opportunity for riders and spectators alike. Details, sign-up sheets and a schedule will be posted outside the Show Office. This activity is free for competitors, spectators and show volunteers, however, space is limited. A preliminary schedule for these sessions will be posted on the show website.
